LEADERSHIP TIP

Reading is not only a great way to gather new insights into leadership, it also provides time for quiet reflection. I recommend that each person on your leadership team share a book/ poem/ essay, etc. that has served to guide and inspire them through their leadership journey. Hint: Try to avoid religious books, as the context may prove to be too much for some to handle. You may be surprised by what you learn from someone else's materials and who you might inspire through your materials.
